

Application to Attend the

Association of Programs for Rural Independent Living (APRIL) Conference

The Nebraska Statewide Independent Living Council (NESILC) determined in our current State Plan on Independent Living (SPIL) to aid in the development of youth leadership in Nebraska by sponsoring one individual between the ages of 18-25 to attend the annual APRIL youth leadership conference www.april-rural.org . The selected individual must have a disability. This conference will be held in conjunction with the Annual APRIL Conference that NESILC members attend, which occurs in October of every year. The location of the conference varies from year to year throughout the country. To be considered please complete the following application and email it to kathy@nesilc.org . NESILC will select who will be sponsored this year from the list of candidates on August 1, 2021. If you have any questions, feel free to contact Kathy@nesilc.org
